BANK OF CAMDEN.

We congratulate our citizens generally, and particularly our Cotton growing neighbors, on the certainty of the establishment of this institution. Its influence has already been felt, so much so, that town property has on suspicion, risen from 15 to 20 per cent within a few weeks, and it may judge from the growing appearance of some of our Mercantile Houses on Broad street, it is likewise certain that our merchants will be supplied the ensuing season with as large an assortment of branch goods as they will be with branch new money. We therefore earnestly solicit our Cotton growing friends to look well to their interest, and give our merchants an early opportunity of proving to them what can now be done in Camden.

Strange indeed as it may appear, yet it is equally true, that from observations lately made by some of the most vigilant Astronomers of our town, it has been ascertained beyond a doubt that we will have no 4th of July in Camden this year. This will in fact be a saving of one day, particularly to those who don't know how to spend it.

At the Swimming Pens in Claremont county, on Saturday, the 18th instant, Dr. J. BISHOP, GEO. L. CHAMBERS, JOHN BRADLEY, MATTHEW JAMES, J. P. RICHARDSON, F. L. KENNEDY, SAMUEL M'BRIDE and JOHN RAMSAY were appointed delegates to the Knoxville convention.

We are pleased to find the name of GEORGE L. CHAMBERS among the above named delegates. He is without doubt more conversant with the subject of Rail Roads than any other individual we know of, and may be justly styled the father of the system in this country. He was the author of a series of essays published more than twenty years ago in the Richmond Enquirer on this subject; and all those who have been acquainted with him from that time, know that it has been his chief hobby—so much so, that he has been frequently spoken of as Rail Road mad, and was reviled and laughed at by the very men who are now the most thorough going for the system.

The editor of the Newbern Spectator in remarking on the duel which lately took place between Mr. BYNUM of N. C. and Mr. JENIFER, of Md. says: "Should BYNUM ever again muster courage to meet another White man in the field he will labor under a disadvantage." We think not, unless the seconds should be so inconsiderate as to substitute lead for wood.

It will be recollected an article has gone the rounds of the newspapers stating a "plot" was on foot to deprive Gen. HORTON of the command of the Texian army, and place Gen. JAMES HAMILTON, of this state, at its head, and that if Gen. HAMILTON should succeed to the command, $10,000,000 would be pledged to the support of the cause of Texian independence. By a paragraph in to-day's paper, it will be seen, that Gen. HAMILTON, as a brave and honorable man, has denied the agency of any "plot" to deprive Gen. HORTON of the command, and disclaims a desire to pluck a laurel from his well earned wreath.

The Georgetown Union contains the commencement of an article on the subject of improving the Harbor of Georgetown and a Rail Road from thence to Charra—taking some notice of the practicability of extending it to the sources of the Yadkin, and aiding the efforts about to be made at Salisbury, N. C. to approach the coast.

Considerable excitement prevails in the counties of Haywood and Macon, N. C. by the movements of the Cherokee Indians since the ratification of the late treaty. It is stated that a large portion of the nation were, and are, opposed to its adoption; and that the treaty was concluded during the absence of the principal chiefs and most influential men of the nation, which has given grounds for suspecting a hostile movement on the part of the Indians.

A gentleman who writes from Frankling, Macon county, North Carolina, under date of June 6th, states as follows:

"Another cause of excitement in this county, is the movements of the Cherokee Indians. Those of them living in that part of the nation immediately joining us, are said to be dissatisfied with the late treaty, &c. collected in companies consulting with one another, and have purchased all the powder they could in the towns of the upper part of Georgia, and from the merchants of this and other places in this county. Flying reports are still stronger."

The commanding officers of our militia are now making preparations for raising a company of Volunteers, to be in readiness on any emergency that may occur."

On Monday, the 13th ult. the House of Representatives passed without amendment the bills from the Senate authorizing the admission of Michigan and Arkansas into the Union.

We find in the New York Commercial Advertiser, some very appropriate remarks on the address of Gen. Rusk to the inhabitants of Texas. From which we copy the following, and to which we would call the attention of every lover of humanity.

"We have only one criticism to offer upon the order of Gen. Rusk. It does seem to us, that after the massacre of the Mexicans, on the 21st of April, by the victorious American Texians, it would be discreet for their officers to say as little as possible of Mexican cruelties. The annals of savage war do not furnish a more bloody passage of history than will be recorded of that battle. By their own accounts, hundreds upon hundreds of flying unarmed Mexicans were shot down while imploring for mercy. When the ammunition of the Texians failed, they knocked the fugitives in the head with their rifle-butts. Hundreds more fled to the river, and, when standing unarmed, harmless and helpless—unable either to resist or to fly—their heads only above water, were shot down as remorselessly by the victors as though they had been so many jackalls. In view of these facts, therefore, we would suggest that, on the score of massacres, the least said by the disinterested Texian patriots the better."

FRENCH CLAIMS.

The New York Journal of Commerce of Thursday says:—"Yesterday, after so many years of hope deferred, the holders of certificates for claims allowed on account of the French spoils, had the pleasure of receiving about 50 per cent. on the amount, comprising an aggregate of near 2,500,000. As most of the claimants reside in the Northern cities, the effect upon the money market in these places must be very perceptible, by putting into circulation, funds which have hitherto been locked up in deposit banks. To this cause, partly, is to be attributed, we presume, the relief experienced in our money market yesterday. The operations of the United States Bank doubtless contributed to the same result."

Duel between Messrs. Jenifer and Bynum.

The difficulty that occurred in the House of Representatives, on Thursday night between Mr. Jenifer, of Md. and Mr. Bynum, of N. C. was, it seems, of such a nature, as to call for a demand of personal satisfaction. The parties met at Rock Creek, near Washington, accompanied by their respective friends. The distance selected was ten yards or thirty feet. After six ineffectual fires, we understand Mr. Bynum came forward in the most honorable manner and expressed himself in terms, which at once settled the difficulty.

The details of this duel will probably be given, at length, by the mutual friends of the parties.

Mr. Jenifer was accompanied by Mr. Peyton and Mr. Pickens; Mr. Bynum by Mr. Sevier and Mr. Hannegan.

Presidential Wit—The following anecdote is now going the rounds of the papers:

"The Secretary of War being dissatisfied with the order directing the Marine Corps to act against the Creeks, and intimating to the President that the Marines were only educated for sea service, the latter, with sang froid, replied, 'They shall go to sea service, and act on the Creeks.'"

TRIBUTE.—It is a respect and a duty that the living owe to the dead, who have been eminently useful in their lives, to pay some appropriate tribute to their memory.

The subject of this notice was so well known to his fellow citizens generally, as not to need the aid of eulogy to portray his usefulness in several capacities, or to tell them who he was. The late Dr. James L. E. W. SHEUT, was born in Beaufort, (S. C.) on the 4th of December 1770, and died in this city, after a severe illness of only eight days, on the 1st of June, 1836, in the 66th year of his age.

Dr. Sheut devoted a long life to the promotion of literary and philosophical pursuits, and stood high in the estimation of many distinguished gentlemen, some of whom have long since been called to pay the debt of nature; and of many who (by the blessing of God) still live to bear ample testimony to his persevering industry in the cause of science and literature generally.

Dr. Sheut was the original founder, and for a length of time President of the "American Home-spun Company," established in this State and located in this city; but which, from some cause or other not now recollected by the writer, was dissolved.

In the early part of the year 1813, Dr. Sheut submitted to a number of his literary friends the outlines of a Constitution for organizing a Society to be called "The Antiquarian Society of Charleston." The members of this Society, at a meeting held on the 30th June of the same year, agreed to change its title to that of "The Literary and Philosophical Society of South Carolina," a Society which still exists among us an honor to its founders, and a blessing to our State.

In the year 1819, Dr. Sheut published a volume of "Medical and Philosophical Essays" containing 1st, Topographical, Historical and other Sketches of the City of Charleston, from its first settlement to the present period. 2d, An Essay on the prevailing fever of 1817. 3d, An Essay on Contagions and Infections. And 4th, An Essay on the Principles and Properties of the Elective Fluid. The whole of which are designed as illustrative of the Domestic Origin of the Yellow Fever of Charleston, and as conducing to the formation of a Medical History of the State of South Carolina. This work immediately after its publication, received extensive circulation; not only from the valuable information it contained, but from the high recommendations it received from several Reviews and other publications in the United States.—Also a Botanical work entitled Flora Carolinensis, together with many valuable and important works not now remembered—also many manuscripts which remain yet unpublished.

Dr. Sheut was well known as the author of numerous useful and practical Essays which appeared not only in the daily papers of this city, but in various parts of the United States; and whenever it was known they emanated from him, they were sure to receive particular attention and general perusal.

It must in truth be admitted, that the death of such a man as Dr. Sheut is a public calamity; especially when it is recollected that all his efforts for the advancement of Science and Literature, were exercised without any view to his own aggrandizement, but purely for the benefit of Society; surely, posterity cannot otherwise than view it as the fairest monument to his fame. But alas!

"For him no more the blazing hearth shall burn,
Nor tender consort watch with anxious care;
No children run to kiss their sire's return,
Nor climb his knee the earliest kiss to share."
A FRIEND.

FOR SALE.

AN upright PIANO, of the best English work in good tune and preservation. Apply at this office. July 2-23-d

To South Carolina Planters. A splendid Cotton Plantation in Mississippi for sale.

THAT valuable plantation, known by the name of SUMMERFIELD, situated in Hinds county, (Mississippi) immediately on the Rail Road from Vicksburg to Clinton and Jackson, (the seat of government,) 25 miles from the former, and the same distance from the latter place: 12 miles from Clinton, is now offered for sale—the proprietor having determined to change his occupation.—To give a minute and detailed description of the property, is deemed entirely unnecessary, as no person it is presumed, would make such a purchase without examination. Suffice it to say that this tract of land, which consists of 800 acres, is decidedly the most valuable, of its size, of any in this section of country. With one exception it was all entered at an early period, when the whole country was open to select from. A large part of it is Rich Cane Bottom Land, Baker's creek, a stream of considerable magnitude, affording excellent mill and gin sites, running through it.

About 100 acres of the tract extends into the hills and covers a beautiful building site and settlement, it being quite elevated, and far remote from all local causes of disease. Indeed, the whole neighborhood in which this land is situated is reputed very healthy. The improvements of the place consists of 250 acres of open land, a good gin and press, negro cabins, &c.

With this plantation would be sold 14 working hands, all young, likely and acclimated; or the number would be added to if desired. Also, the stock of horses, mules, oxen, wagon, working utensils, &c.

There is a growing crop on the place, consisting of 120 acres cotton, besides corn, oats, &c. which would be sold with the place if desired, and possession given at any time the purchaser might wish. If preferred, the land would be sold without the hands.

Any reasonable time will be given, upon the payments being well secured; but the price would be much reduced for prompt payments.

This property will be shown, and the terms made known, upon application to the subscriber, on the premises, or to A. Jackson Burke, Amsterdam, Mississippi.

An inquiry in regard to this property, which may be communicated by mail, will be responded to by either of the persons herein named by addressing a letter to Amsterdam, Mississippi.

JAMES BURKE.

HISTORY OF South-Carolina.

D. J. DOWLING, 83 Broad-Street, has commenced the re-publication promised some time back, of Dr. DAVID RAMSAY'S HISTORY OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Citizens of the City and State, will be waited on previous to the issue for subscribers. In order to place it within the reach of all, it will be printed in numbers of from 50 to 100 pages each, price 50 cents per number. The cost of the 2 vols., in this manner will not exceed $5. To those who wish it, they will be furnished, bound in sheep, gilt and lettered, at $3 per volume, of 500 pages more or less. The first volume will be embellished with a correct VIEW OF THE CITY AND HARBOR OF CHARLESTON, Engraved expressly for this Work, which will be drawn from the most favorable situation. The second volume will contain a MAP OF THE STATE OF SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The Work will be printed on the finest quality of paper, in new and clear type, with stitched covers to each No. As the expense will be considerable, a list of 1000 names is required to warrant the undertaking. The first specimen number is expected to be ready about the 1st August, and the whole will be completed previous to 1st January, 1837. It is hoped in the mean time, and respectfully solicited, that the citizens will patronize this truly Southern Publication in preference to the numerous Works of a foreign nature, which annually receive their support, and generally contain animadversions on their Institutions.

Should further encouragement warrant it, the history will be continued up to the present time, by a competent Editor.

As an instance of the scarcity of this Work, the Publisher would state that he could find but one complete copy in the City—this copy belonged to the Charleston Library Society.

Persons being near any post office in the State where there is no agent, by forwarding a $5 bill, at our expense, or a responsible City reference, will have the work regularly forwarded to them in Nos. by mail, the postage of which will scarcely ever exceed 6 1-4 cents per No.

In addition to the Editors of the different papers, the following persons are authorized agents:

- James Smith, Charleston. J. R. & W. Cunningham, Columbia. A. Young, Camden. John Ryan, Barnwell Dist. P. O'Sullivan, Sumter Dist. Charleston, June 1-20-1f
